REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

ROOMS OF HIGHLAND COUNTY
REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE,
HILLSBORO, O., May 8, 1882.
The Republicans of Highland County are hereby requested to meet at the Court House, in Hillsboro, on Saturday, May 27th, 1882, at 1:30 p. m., for the purpose of selecting 7 delegates to represent the county in the Republican State Convention to be held at Columbus on Wednesday, the 7th day of June, 1882.
GEORGE FULLER, JOSEPH ELLIOTT,
Secretary. Chairman.

Special Notice.
Mr. JAMES H. WILSON, recently connected with the Local department of the New Vienna Record, is an authorized Agent, to receive subscriptions for the NEWS, and also advertising and job work. His headquarters for the present are at Leesburg, and his field of operation in Fairfield and adjoining townships. Our large and rapidly increasing circulation in that section of the county, renders the NEWS a good advertising medium, for the business men of Leesburg and New Lexington, who can either hand their favors to Mr. Wilson, or forward them direct to this office. Local Business notices inserted for 10 cents per line for the first insertion, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion.

Colonel E. J. Blount, Steward of the Columbus Insane Asylum, has our thanks for a copy of the 43d annual report of the institution.

The United States Senate special committee on Woman Suffrage has recommended a constitutional amendment allowing woman to vote.

Mr. Madison Pavey, of Fayette county, is the latest entry in the Congressional race in this district. His banner is unfurled to the breeze by the Washington C. H. correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette. Mr. Pavey is a good Republican, and would no doubt run well in his own county.

Greenfield, through the Chief, lays claim to both the Republican and Democratic Congressional Conventions. Greenfield has a good hall and is available to most of the counties by rail, but the hotel accommodations are not sufficient for the crowds that attend Congressional Conventions.

Governor Foster was interviewed in New York last week on Ohio politics and expressed his belief that the Republicans would carry the State ticket next fall. He thought that a large number of German Catholics would support the Republican ticket on account of the Sunday law. When asked if he was a candidate for United States Senator he smiled knowingly and said he was in the "hands of his friends."

Many of the Republicans of Highland county are probably not aware that we have no Congressional Committee in this county, since the death of Mr. J. C. Gregg. It is the duty of the Central Committee, we believe, to appoint one, and this should be attended to without delay. Hillsboro should, by all means, have the Convention, and certainly she cannot expect to obtain it when Highland is not represented by a committee. Let some action be taken in this matter immediately.

Death of Mrs. Margaret Martin.
Buxton, May 23, 1882.
Mrs. Margaret Martin, wife of Eli S. Martin, died of consumption at her home near Hillsboro last Tuesday morning. Funeral services were held at the Christian Church at Buxton, on Wednesday, Elder G. W. Ruble officiating, after which her remains were followed to their last resting place by a large train of sympathizing friends and relatives. Mrs. Martin was beloved and respected by all who knew her. A loving wife, a kind mother, her loss will be a sad one indeed to the four little boys she leaves behind to mourn her departure. Mr. Martin has the sympathy of the entire community in his sad bereavement.
ABRUE.

Highland for the Best Man.

Mr. Cyrus Newby, one of the prominent young attorneys of Hillsboro, and the Chairman of the Highland County Republican Central committee, was a visitor to the city Tuesday and Wednesday. He ran down to Waverly, Tuesday, merely long enough to take a field glass view of the situation, and returned that evening. Mr. Newby says he speaks for the Republicans of Highland when he says they are for the best man first, last and all the time—at the same time indulging the hope that Highland county may be able to show up the best man—Ross County Register.

Monument to President Garfield at Washington.

We call attention to the appeal published on the first page of this paper, for donations on Decoration Day, for the National Monument to President Garfield. We will take pleasure in forwarding to Washington any sums handed to us for this purpose, and will publish the names of the donors and amounts donated in the NEWS. Let there be a handsome contribution from Hillsboro.

In another column we publish an interview with Governor Hart, reported by the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, on the political situation in Ohio, and also the views of a friend of his on the Governor's chances for the Congressional nomination, which makes a strong showing in his favor.

The Ross County Register claims that Capt. John D. Madeira could carry Ross county by seven or eight hundred majority.

Hon. J. J. Pogeley's friends in Hillsboro claim that he could carry Highland by four hundred majority.

Telephonic Connection with Greenfield.

Mr. W. C. Stewart, who is constructing the telephone here, went to Greenfield last week to feel the pulse of the citizens there, about connecting that town with Hillsboro. The result of his visit may be seen by the following from the Greenfield Chief:
Mr. W. C. Stewart, one of the managers of the Midland Telephone Co., called at this office last Thursday. He is now engaged in putting up an exchange at Hillsboro and came over here for the purpose of conferring with some of our citizens upon the question of erecting a line from here to Hillsboro. We are pleased to be able to report that he met with a pleasant reception from all that he conferred with, and returned to Hillsboro favorably impressed with the prospect. He assured us that if he built a line from this place to Hillsboro that before the summer ended he expected to have us in telephonic communication with Cincinnati by way of Chillicothe, and with Columbus by way of Chillicothe. This is too good a thing to let go by default.

Institute Commencement.

The Commencement exercises of the Highland Institute will be held on June 8. The essays will be read at 10 a. m. in the Institute Chapel, the address and graduation exercises will be at the Music Hall on the evening of the same day. Following is a list of the graduates:
Miss Janis D. Orlington, Bloomington, Ohio.
Miss Elsie S. Grand-Girard, Eekmanville, Ohio.
Miss Hattie B. Harrison, Columbus, Ohio.
Miss Lizzie Hensley, West Union, Ohio.
Miss Fannie Johnson, Leesburg, Ohio.
Miss Kate L. McDermott, Columbus, Ohio.

Quarterly Meeting Services.

Will be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church as follows: Preaching by Rev. Dr. VanCleave, B. E., Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and Sabbath at 10 o'clock. Love-feast will be held Sabbath morning at 9 o'clock, and the sacramental services will be Sabbath afternoon at 8 o'clock. Sabbath evening a union service will be held, at which Dr. Starr will deliver a sermon to the members of the Grand Army of the Republic.

COUNTRY LETTERS.

PRICEDOWN.

Wheat never promised better than at present, and oats and the pastures are in a fine condition.

Some corn is coming up nicely and farmers are nearly all done planting. A large acreage has been put in this spring. "Bobbing," B. Center and his force are putting up a building for E. Slagle.

Mr. Henry Shields, of West Union, and a sister of Mrs. Sarah Hughes, are visiting here. Rev. Moffit, of the Christian church, will preach a missionary sermon here next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m.

Preaching every Sunday at the Universalist church at 2 o'clock p. m.

NEW LEXINGTON.

Our school enjoyed quite a treat on Tuesday afternoon last in the way of a picnic, furnished by Miss Florence Keen, of Toledo. "The Green Mountain Justice," "Jennie McNeal," "The Stout Chief's Daughter," "Bobbing," "The Bald-headed Man," and "Jane's Conquest," were rendered in a style that would do honor to the most accomplished actors.

These were of fine nature, and gave evidence of much natural ability, combined with careful and thorough training. Her gestures are natural and altogether graceful. Those who listened a series of word pictures full of beauty, meaning, and exquisite humor.

Miss Florence is not yet thirteen. She has taken lessons for some time past of Mrs. Mansfield Field, the noted teacher of elocution in St. Louis.

The Church social at the residence of Mr. Chas. Clark on Friday evening, was a success, as usual. These socials had fair to become an attractive feature in our quiet village life.

There are scarce home-cleaning, gardening, and council business, keep everybody too busy for anything to happen.

Monday at 9 a. m. A full attendance of the young people is desired.

Mrs. Margaret Roberts was visiting in Keosauqua, Iowa, in visiting relatives in this township.

Major Rodgers, with his usual enterprise, has opened an aesthetic grocery store in the Stout Hotel building. Everything nice and new, and in full view. While costume, wait on customers.

Mr. Walter S. Stewart, of Midland Telephone Company, and Policeman James Lyle, of Hillsboro, were the guests of William Lyle on Sunday. Walter is an old Concord boy, and has many friends here, who are highly gratified at his success in business.

It is rumored that a new dress-making shop is to be opened at the residence of Al Board, under the direction of his daughter, Miss Nina. There has been quite an outpour of the young ladies of our vicinity to Hillsboro and other places, to learn trades and attend school.

The well-known proclivity of one of our Buxton young ladies for the use of alcohol as a beverage, is more surely set upon by the pond and Smith hills. Naughty goose!

The pleasant relation that "Hiram" has sustained for some time as local correspondent to the Highland News, will hereafter be discontinued, owing to adverse circumstances. With best wishes for the success of the last paper in the county, we make our bow and cease "blooming."
